GPLMART PLANNER

The ADHD-Friendly Daily Planner

Time-blocked days, body-doubling timers and shutdown rituals - 14 undated pages plus a weekly reset.

HOW THIS PLANNER WORKS

Top 3 only

ADHD brains drown in long lists. Three priorities per day - everything else is bonus.

Time blocks, not to-dos

Assign each task a time slot. A task without a time is a wish.

Body doubling

Work alongside someone (or a video) for 25 minutes, break 5. The timer section is built for this.

Energy check first

Rate your energy 1-5 before planning. Low energy day = shrink the list, don't abandon it.

Shutdown ritual

End every day by writing tomorrow's top 3 - your future self starts ahead.

The 5-minute reset (for bad days)

1. Set a 5-minute timer. 2. Write down everything swirling in your head - no order, no judgment.

3. Pick ONE thing you can finish in 15 minutes. 4. Do only that. 5. Stop. You already won today.

WEEKLY RESET

DAYS I ACTUALLY USED THE PLANNER (HONEST COUNT)

WHAT WORKED THIS WEEK

WHAT MADE IT HARD

ONE ADJUSTMENT FOR NEXT WEEK

CARRY-OVER TASKS FROM LAST WEEK

THE OVERWHELM PAGE

When everything feels like too much, don't try to fix your life. Do this instead:

1. Breathe for 60 seconds - in for 4, hold for 4, out for 6.
2. Write a brain dump: everything in your head, no filtering.
3. Circle the ONE thing causing the most weight.
4. Shrink it until it's 15 minutes of work.
5. Set a timer and do only that.
6. When the timer ends, stop. Progress counts, even tiny.

Reminder: done is better than perfect. A messy day that happened beats a perfect plan that didn't.
