The 30-day launch plan

Use the tools in this order. Each week builds on the last.

Week 1 - Foundation: know your numbers

1. Open the Profit & Pricing System and build your Product Costs sheet for your top
3-5 products.
2. Run each through the Pricing Calculator - find your break-even and target-margin price.
3. If you're selling on Etsy, open the Etsy Toolkit and price your first listing through the Fee Calculator. Log it in the Profit Tracker.

> PRO TIP: If your break-even price is above the market rate, don't launch yet.
Either bundle products, cut costs, or find a niche where your price is justified.
Pricing correctly on day one prevents the slow bleed of unprofitable sales.

Week 2 - Marketing engine: copy and content

4. Open the Ad Copy Swipe File - pick 10 hooks from the angle that matches your product, swap the placeholders, and write your first ad or listing description.

5. Open the Social Media Content Kit - set up the 30-day calendar. Batch-write week 1's captions using the formulas.
6. Post consistently. The kit's calendar handles the planning - you just show up.

> KEY INSIGHT: Swipe files work because proven copy patterns repeat. The difference between a $0 product and a $10k product is often just better hooks - and you now have 200+ of them.

Week 3 - Professional surface: documents and proposals

7. Fill in the Shopify Store Launch Document Pack - privacy policy, refund policy, shipping policy, FAQ. These protect you legally and increase buyer trust.
8. If you sell services or freelance alongside products, customize a resume variant and a proposal template from the Resume Kit.
9. Review your Etsy Toolkit Listing Tracker - which listings convert? Double down on those keywords.

Week 4 - Review and scale

10. Run your first monthly P&L in the Profit System - know your real margin.
11. Check the Etsy Dashboard tab - revenue vs profit. If ad spend is eating margin, adjust.
12. Plan next month's content calendar and ad tests using the swipe file.

How to resell these products (the empire part)

Every product in this bundle - like all GPLMart ebooks and digital products - includes resell rights. That means:

- You can list them on Etsy, Gumroad, Payhip or your own store as your own products
- You keep 100% of the sale price
- You can bundle them, rebrand them, or combine them with your own work
- You cannot claim authorship or resell the membership itself

The high-margin play

Digital products have near-100% margins. A $17 spreadsheet costs you nothing to deliver - every sale is profit. The bundle strategy works because:

- Single products get discovered (SEO, Pinterest, Etsy search)
- Bundles get bought (higher perceived value, higher AOV)
- Systems get recommended (buyers tell other buyers)

Product listing checklist (for reselling)

When you list any of these on your own store:

- [ ] Create mockup images showing the product in use (spreadsheet open on a laptop, planner on a desk)
- [ ] Write a benefit-driven title: outcome first, not features ("Know your real profit margin" not "Excel spreadsheet")
- [ ] Price at 2-3x what you paid attention to - digital products are priced on value, not cost
- [ ] Include 3-5 preview screenshots or sample pages
- [ ] Add a "what's included" list - buyers buy clarity
- [ ] Offer a bundle discount (buy 2+ products, save 20%)

> PRO TIP: The Resume & Freelance Proposal Kit and the Social Media Content Kit are your best standalone resell candidates - they solve emotional problems (career anxiety, content overwhelm) that buyers pay to escape.

Keeping the empire growing

This bundle gives you the tools. The system gives you the edge:

1. Review weekly - Friday, 30 minutes, look at the trackers
2. Test monthly - one new hook, one new listing, one new price
3. Document everything - your swipe file grows, your systems improve
4. Compound - every product you sell funds the next iteration

> KEY INSIGHT: The difference between a side hustle and a business is systems. You now own the systems.
